Matisse Chocolatier Celebrates 20th Anniversary & Is Now Under Kosher Supervision

After helping so many others with celebrations, it's time for Matisse Chocolatier, located in Englewood, NJ, to celebrate. Owners Lucille and Vlado Skroce announce the twentieth anniversary of their custom chocolate shop. And, in addition, they are now under Kosher supervision.

Matisse Chocolatier, a family-owned and operated business, was started in January, 1986. The Skroces purchased the shop in 1994, in order to pursue their dream of becoming chocolate artisans. Since then they have satisfied the sweet cravings of customers by crafting homemade, hand-dipped chocolate creations from an assortment of over fifty luscious items, ranging from popcorn and potato chips to a variety of fresh fruits. Along with the hand-dipped chocolates, customized molds for both favors and corporate clients are among their specialties.

Now that the shop is under "National Kosher Supervision" (dairy), an even wider audience can enjoy Matisse Chocolatier fresh treats. Custom gift baskets and platters for holiday celebrations, other occasions, and corporate gifts are always available.

In May, 2003, the Skroces moved the shop to its present location on Grand Ave, allowing them to expand their operations and add a party room. This new space is used not only for children's parties but for other events including fund-raisers. Matisse Chocolatier is located at 260 Grand Avenue, Englewood, NJ.
