"A note to express my sincere thanks to you for taking the time out of your very busy schedule to meet with me last Friday. I found it very helpful and informative. With gratitude. . ." Ms. D.

WHO WE ARE

Nancy E. Saccente, Esq., has a BS degree from Rider University and a Juris Doctorate from Washington College of Law, American University, in Washington, DC. She established her own business in 1996.

Nancy is licensed in both New Jersey and New York. She is a member of the Bergen County Bar Association, Women Lawyers in Bergen County, and the New Jersey Association of Women Business Owners. Nancy has a full-service staff to ensure that clients always get personal attention.

Since 1997, Nancy has been a participant in the Bergen County Domestic Violence Legal Advocacy Project, which provides pro bono legal services to victims of domestic violence.

Life is full of changes. Often these changes are simple and easy to handle. Sometimes, though, they are more complicated. This is when we can help you. We will explain the legal issues involved and help you decide if you need a lawyer.

Every situation is different – you will receive our personal attention as we find the solution that is best for you. Our goal is to make sure you understand all of the options and have enough information to make a good choice.

And when you need us, we will be there for you.
